French distributor Lucky You launches international sales division

Paris-based distributor Lucky You is expanding into international feature film sales. The two-year-old shop has added Xavier De Lauzanne's Sunny Side of the Doc-bound Little Gems (Les Pépites) to its catalog, which includes 460 hours from more than 30 television documentary producers. During this year's Sheffield Doc/Fest and Sunny Side of the Doc, Lucky You will be pitching projects Looking Through the Pyramids, an international copro presold to around 10 international broadcasters, the history project The Treaty of Rome, the science films Tricky Memory and Dream Babies, and several blue-chip wildlife projects.
